

MORE THAN 20 YEARS AT THE HEART OF LIFE CHANGING PROJECTS

Our motto has become our corporate culture: For more than two decades, public- and private-sector clients worldwide have selected PY Consulting International as their "project development and project management consultants" on their most complex projects. They all choose PY, as they need a firm they can trust, who deliver results by preventing problems, minimizing risks and eliminating surprises.

The nomination of quality minded and customer oriented experts and managers, devoted to continual improvement as to implement modern information technology and management techniques lead to achieve our clients' commercial, technical, economical and social targets through time-quality and cost optimization. Meeting our clients' diverse needs in handling construction risk and exceeding their highest expectations is our goal at PY. We accomplish this objective through a broad range of project development and project management consulting services during every phase of a project, "from the concept through to operation".

PROJECT DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Income Maximization Solution Optimization

The "Project Development" phase is one that provides us with the best opportunities to create impact on the commercial success of our Clients' project. In this phase, starting from the strategic planning and conceptual design;

- we define the project according to the unique needs based on the supply-demand equilibrium,
- we establish the grounds through value assessment and return calculations thus ensuring commercial success,
- we achieve "solution optimization" through "income maximization", by providing strategic planning, project finance, valuation, portfolio and asset management services according to the specific needs of our client.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT SERVICES

The collaboration of Capability and Excellence

Construction is one of the world's most difficult and challenging endeavors and large scale projects carry big risks. Even one mistake in any of the thousands of different tasks on a project can lead to severe problems and result in serious schedule delays and cost overruns. With the financial stakes so high, it is critical that every step of the project be managed carefully. PY International is one the premier firms having in depth experience in developing countries and helping public and private sector clients managing their projects more effectively. Whether the project is a mass housing, shopping center, hotel or a multi function high rise building, we can provide to our clients a full spectrum of services, including project development, design coordination, construction management, project management support, staff augmentation, scheduling, cost estimating and cost management services.
